

IT Services

Telkite's complete range of IT Services addresses the needs of both technology and business requirements to help organizations leverage leading-edge technologies for business improvement.

Telkite is focused on understanding its clients' needs and delivering IT services & solutions at right value & required speed. We believe we succeed when our clients succeed by growing and outpacing their competition.

By selecting Telkite as an IT services partner, you'll gain access to process excellence, IT technology expertise & an experienced pool of resources. Our focus is on driving business transformation through IT as a tool to help you drive genuine business results.

Telkite takes charge of the IT needs of the entire enterprise. The gamut of services extends from Enterprise Application Services (CRM, ERP, e-Procurement and SCM), to e-Business solutions. Telkite's enterprise solutions have served and continue to serve clients from a range of industries including Energy and Utilities, Finance, Telecom, and Media and Entertainment.